

Brexit Statement

Until the UK Government and/or Parliament determine a plan of action regarding Brexit, and convince the European Union to accept that plan, PennWhite will continue its efforts (described in the previous versions of this statement), to mitigate the effects of a soft, hard or no-deal Brexit on its operations and ability to deliver the high levels of customer service upon which the business is built. In the meantime, the statement below succinctly sums up the situation;

"There are things, we know that we know. There are known unknowns. That is to say, there are things that we now know we don't know. But there are also unknown unknowns. There are things we don't know we don't know. So, when we do the best we can and we pull all this information together, and we then say, well that's basically what we see as the situation, that is really only the known knowns and the known unknowns. And each year, we discover a few more of those unknown unknowns. It sounds like a riddle. It isn't a riddle. It is a very serious, important matter."
